

Pinot Noir Intrigue

By Edie De Avila

It's a challenge to grow, ripen, and make Pinot Noir grapes into wine. The uncertain ways they react to temperature changes and to winemaking steps only intensify their mystery and appeal.

The resulting wines surprise and enslave drinkers for life.

Below are 15 words. The first 10 describe some aspects of Pinot Noir. The last five are a few foods that Pinot Noir wines can complement. Have fun putting them into their spaces.

CEDAR	MINT	BEEF
CHERRY	PLUM	CHICKEN
CLOVE	ROSES	DUCK
DELICATE	TEA	LAMB
FINESSE	VELVET	PORK
